Pratima

A reflection of the music learnt from Gurus

Indian Music has stood the test of time due to the diligent efforts of the Guru and the incessant devotion of the student. Indian Music Society would like to invite audience to witness the unique relation of the Guru and Shishya (Teacher and Student) and the music bond that the music forms between them.

“Pratima” is a reflection of the art that the students acquire from their Guru and how the legacy of music lives on from one generation to the next.

This is truly and event to hail the tradition our musical culture has gifted us.
